

Commodore's Report – Tim Dies

February set new rain records along with a few windstorms to go with it. Remember to re-check your lines and fenders to minimize damage.

Thanks to all of our volunteers that worked at the Seattle Boat Show! We had some great bullet points that showed people we are a fun and economically friendly club. 27 contact forms is a great response from the show and Pat has invited all of them to meetings and socials. So far we have 4 applications in and more to come. We have met some of our new and potential members at our meeting and so far I feel privileged to have new people excited about our club.

The Lobster Fest was a great success! We had 67 lobsters flown in and good weather to enjoy some great food and camaraderie with club members and guests. Almost everybody that showed up volunteered to help set up, cook, or clean and a massive thanks to the "Lobster Lady" Nancy Morton and her crew. Keep snapping!

Now that we have all of the permits needed for the dock extension, we need members to contact Pat to get on the list for moorage and then we need to create a letter of intent for our financing package. Robert Murphy put one together 3 years ago and it can be updated. Some ideas have included member donations or bonds and a loan. Please let me know your thoughts and ideas as we need to move forward. ## Vice Commodore's Report – Paul Smith

Hello All,

I hope everyone had as great of a time at the Lobster Feed as we did. Thank you Nancy Morton and company for putting this together after last year's hiatus.

On a housekeeping note, our Spring Work Party is on the horizon, scheduled for Saturday, April 30th. If you can, please save the date and join us to help spruce the club up prior to Opening Day.

Cheers

Rear Commodore's Report – Bob Josephson

As I write this, Cindy and I are enjoying some much needed R&R on Maui. We know when we arrive back home, the days will be longer and hopefully the rain will be gone.

February brought us a great presentation at our General meeting from the Seattle Yacht Club regarding Opening Day. The theme this year is "A Great Escape".

By the time you read this, another wonderful Lobster Feed will have taken place. Thanks to Lobster Master Nancy Morton for all of your very hard work planning this event!

Upcoming is the Woodinville Wine Social on 3/12. Judy Quick as always, has a very special tour planned. Thanks Judy!

The Ice Breaker Brunch will be held 3/20 at Chinooks. Garry and Sharon Moore are to be thanked for planning this annual event.

Looking forward to some fun events and the arrival of spring.

Fleet Captain's Report – Robert Murphy

As we move through the winter we are now to the point where the PSYC Cruise Calendar is starting! Now is the perfect time before the cruising season starts to go through and review the safety check list on your vessel. Check those flare dates!

Coming in just two weeks is our Ice Breaker Cruise. This year we will be at Chinook's on Sunday, March 20th at 10:00 AM. Please contact Garry Moore for reservations. It is looking to be a big crowd already. Hope to see everyone there.

April brings two cruises. The first is an Anchor Out in Eagle Harbor. We are still looking for a cruise captain for this event. If I we cannot get a cruise captain volunteer we may need to cancel this cruise.

The second event in April is the 22nd - 24th at Kingston Marina. It is a great time every year and should be a great event. Please contact Laura Klein & Paul Devlin for information. The flyer is in this newsletter.

Membership Report – Pat Hansen

For being at the Boat Show for the first time, PSYC had a really good response. PSYC members talked to many people and there were 27 “Please Contact Me” slips filled out and 2 Applications for Membership on our PSYC Website. I contacted everyone via email and called those who only listed their phone numbers inviting them to our February Meeting as our guests. From these 27 Contact Slips - 10 replied and 17 did not. I will be sending out emails again to the 17 who did not respond to the first email inviting them to our March Meeting. Hopefully the second time will be the charm.

At our February Steak Fry Dinner Meeting 13 prospective new members came as our guests. Several prospective members were out of town in February and wanted to be contacted again for our March Meeting. I will send out follow up emails to all of them.

Please come to our March Meeting and help us welcome 2 New Members – Matt and Pam Kaman who will be inducted. They have attended several of our functions – the Boat Show Brunch, the Wine Social, and the February Dinner. There will also be several prospective new members.
