

Commodore's Report – Bob Josephson

February was a great month for PSYC. We had a very successful Boat Show and we visited with many fellow boaters and invited a number of them to visit our club. The February club meeting saw a great turnout with a steak dinner to celebrate Valentine's Day. Eleven potential new members attended. Thanks to Gary and Donna Sheneman for organizing that wonderful dinner.

We look forward to March with many activities including the Ice Breaker brunch at Chinooks, Lobster Feed, Wine Social and a Poker Run.
The dock extension now has all of the required permits. We also look forward to the start of construction which should happen very soon. I will be asking for volunteers to run the water main and tackle some other finishing touches.

Please take a look at our new section in this Sound Waves, "Roster Sponsor Spotlight". Each month we will highlight a few of our Roster Advertisers to give you an idea of the services they provide. We only have reputable advertisers and want to support them as they support us.

Looking forward to seeing you all at the March general meeting.

Vice Commodore's Report – Robert Murphy

Happy Winter PSYC,

Well spring is less than three weeks away but, it sure does not feel like it in the Pacific Northwest. After the latest batch of winter weather and snow I think we are all ready for some warmer weather.

From the Vice Commodore seat, times are busy. As Garry Moore covered in the February meeting, the dock project is proceeding. As of this morning we have gotten a contractor lined up for the DNR sediment report which may start the first week of March. Right behind that we are working with Waterfront Construction to schedule our pilings to be driven. Currently our long-awaited pilings are making their way to Waterfront. Who knows, we might even have construction going by the March general meeting.

Expect the dock to be busy over the next few months as we are building out the dock, extending water lines out and upgrading electrical. All great things for our club.

Stay warm everyone and remember spring is around the corner!

Rear Commodore's Report – Bill Traver

By the time you see this edition of the Sound Waves we will have had our Sunday Ice Breaker Brunch. I hope we saw you there.

Now it is on to the 7th Annual Lobster Fest! On Saturday, March 4th PSYC will again host this great event. Things get started at 5:30pm with appetizers & cocktails (BYOB) and will be followed by a fabulous lobster dinner at 6:30pm ($25/person). You should have already RSVP'd to Nancy Morton for this event.

And capping off this month's Yacht Club social activities, Judith Cushman will be putting on (as she always does) her Wine Social on Friday March 10th. A formal tasting program begins at 6 pm after a welcome sparkling wine at 5:30pm. The cost for this event will be $20.00 for food & wine and $10.00 for food only. If you have not yet RSVP'd, please do so soon! We're hopeful that some of our new members will be there as well. Please see the attached flyer.

See you at the parties!

Fleet Captain's Report – Mike Thompson

I hope you liked the snow! We spent a week in San Diego and it rained part of the time so let's get to boating or just having fun now.

We have the Poker Run coming up on March 18th. I want to thank Garry and Sharon Moore, along with Mike and Lisa Haistings, for being picket boats along with my boat. You say what is a picket boat? Well they will have hors d'oeuvres and cards. I may even have a lemon drop or 2 on my "yacht". We do need a couple of taxi boats to take people around to visit the boats. If you would like to be a taxi boat please contact me. This is a really fun event to join in. Please see the attached flyer.

We have a new fun social coming up that we have never done. It is called Corks and Canvas. Let me think about this; drink wine and paint. Ok do not paint your house but we are painting on a canvas, and yes grades are given!!!!!! The club is providing hors d'oeuvres and wine. The date is April 1st, and this is no April Fool's joke. The cost is $45.00 per person for the night. I think this will be a fun event to get the club together and meet new people. Guest are welcome. Please RSVP me if you want to come. Please see the attached flyer.

Membership Report – Pat Hansen

We had a good response from the Boat Show. At the February Dinner Meeting we had 4 Prospective Members attend and one couple, Adrienne and Robert Dahlin, submitted their membership application. They will be coming to the Lobster Feed so those of you who didn't meet them at the meeting will have a chance to get to know them. They are anxious to become members, hopefully in March, and will be great additions to our PSYC family.

Please plan to come to our March Dinner Meeting on the 15th. I will be contacting additional prospective members who were out of town in February. I hope that at least 4-6 additional prospective members will attend.

See you at the Meeting and...

THERE HASN'T BEEN A POKER RUN FOR A FEW YEARS

Charge up your boat and give it a warm-up or join someone else collecting cards to play when you return to the Club. Play as many hands as you want.

- Three cards are picked up, one at a time, by cruising on your boat or cruising with someone else on their boat to three "picket" boats that are located on docks on Lake Union and Lake Washington. All are relatively close by. If you don't make three boats that is just fine.
- Play your hands at the Clubhouse—Still $1 per hand!
- Dinner will be served

Starts at the Clubhouse around 1:00—1:30. Dinner around 5:30.
